We want you to succeed! All first-time Elf Shelf Stores must have at least 300 students and run for 3+ days during school hours. Yes! We want a 2011 Elf Shelf® Holiday Store and want to take advantage of the NO Inventory Program. We want to earn _____% (0% (Service Project), 10%, 20%) profit on our sales. (Choose one)

We understand that although a representative will work with us to order items in our desired price categories and we may request extras of specific gift items to be included with our shipment, merchandise is shipped in kit form and may not be special ordered after June 1, 2011. We also understand that we may re-order only with the following stipulations: 1) Our Holiday Store is running during school hours. 2) We have at least two selling days left after we place our re-order. (2 initials required) _____

Schools with 300+ Students who run their sale for 3+ days during school hours receive $300 in Kid Bucks OR may purchase everything sent at the 20% discount Buyout Price.

We want (circle one): Kid Bucks Buyout Price

Please send us approximately $ _____ in merchandise.
(Experienced SchoolPals staff will calculate and make recommendations. Minimum sent is $2500 worth.)

Merchandise is sent on consignment so there is no pre-payment necessary.
SchoolPals will pay the shipping to the school and the shipping to return the leftover merchandise to SchoolPals.

Schools receive FREE Coming Soon and Has Arrived bilingual Parent Letter flyers, Gift Guide Envelopes for students, as well as a FREE Supply Kit with posters, tablecloths, 2 sizes of self-sealing gift bags, and plastic handled shopping bags for carrying gifts home.

We understand that if we have not paid our invoice by December 31, 2011, we will forfeit the right to return unsold merchandise. A 2% late fee will be charged monthly for payments received after January 6, 2012. (2 initials required) _____
